FRONT COVER: "Wonderland of Sand and Stone, Sun and Shadow" DAVID MUENCH

The Wonderful STATE OF ARIZONA

Arizona is still a wonderful land, even in this sophisticated, super-jet age, when there seems to be little left to wonder at.

Super highways and supersonic skyways do not afford the busy traveller the time nor the opportunity to see and appreciate the fact that there is still much more of the West of The Wide Open Spaces than travel brochures and oil company maps show.

For almost half a century writers, artists and photographers have travelled the length and breadth of our state in every direction, from below sea level to the loftiest peak top and to this day those still actively involved in the action of seeking, finding and communicating never cease to marvel at the beautiful reality that there are still vistas and wonders to enjoy and record. We are fortunate and thankful for our wonderful contributors who honor our pages with the fruit of their efforts.

Whether you know Arizona first hand or through the pages of ARIZONA HIGHWAYS MAGAZINE, or through the folio of this calendar, it's wonderful to know that there is yet no limit to the beauty of our wonderful land. Outside the city limits Arizona is the Real Thing, a reward in itself for the true seeker of clear skies and unlimited horizons.
