Series 1: Biographical Materials

Dates: 1939-2010 (Bulk 1966-2008)

Extent: 15 Cubic Feet in 38 manuscript boxes

Scope and Content: The Biographical Materials series contains a variety of primary and research materials related to Robert Rauschenberg's personal life and family, as well as professional activities outside his art making practice. The materials in this series include calendars, correspondence, certificates, identification cards, receipts, press, and schedules. Chronologies were created over a span of 30 years and cover general life events, exhibitions and performance listings. Gifts primarily consists of lists of recipients. Newspaper and Magazine Clippings focus on general press about the artist; press related to specific exhibitions or events can be found in the Projects and Exhibitions series or the Curatorial Clipping Files (ACC 48). Travel contains airline tickets, inventories, and schedules.

Highlights within this series include planning and press materials related to Rauschenberg's activism, specifically his work with artists' rights; detailed information on various awards and honors, board and committee appointments, and public engagements; and his annual calendars that were primarily kept by studio staff, who often outlined his activities in a diary-like format.

Photographs and audiovisual materials related to biographical subjects are located in the Photograph collection (RRFA 09) and the Audiovisual collection (RRFA 02) respectively.

Arrangement: This series is arranged alphabetically by subject.

Processing Information: The majority of the records in this series were created or collected by the Robert Rauschenberg Studio; the series and its arrangement were created during processing.
